Once upon a time there was a princess named Charlotte. She lived with her parents in a castle. She was a very nice and helpful girl.
One day Charlotte was playing in the garden. She saw some kids teasing a lost cat.
Charlotte rescued the cat
and shooed the kids away.
Charlotte took the cat to her castle and took care of her.
Luckily she saw the cat's address on her collar and decided to take her back.
Charlotte returned the cat.
The owner was so happy and gave Charlotte a magic word.
