Chocolate World
by: McRae B
In chocolate world
lives a chocolate chicken who always twirled while strawberry picking
He carried a box and filled it full. He fell on some rocks and that wasn't cool.
Help!

His strawberries spilled out he skinned his knee he started to pout
and shouted please help me.
Then came Max the dog he helped chocolate chicken stand they sat on a chocolate log and decided to start a chocolate band.
Chocolate chicken will play the flute Max the dog will sing a song everyone will have a hoot even if the tune is wrong Chocolate world is the best It's fun and yummy
a place where you can rest and a place to fill your tummy
