Tiger Trouble
by: Channing Seaton
Tricky the tiger was a very happy cat. Each day he liked to run through the forest.
His favorite thing was to dig big holes and pick up sticks. He also liked to swim and play in the water. He spent the rest of his time sleeping in the trees.
At night, he would use his binoculars to look at the stars. He also listened to all of the crickets sing.
Suddenly, he heard footsteps in the mud and sticks cracking. It was a poacher!
Tricky the tiger hid behind a bush waiting. His tail was sticking out of the bush. He was ready to "trick" the poachers.
The poacher saw Tricky and began to walk slowly toward him. The poacher fell in the hole that Tricky made.
Tricky walked over to the poacher and said "better luck next time!" The poacher was scared and said "please don't hurt me." Tricky said "don't hurt the tigers ever again!" The poacher promised to be nice to all tigers.

THE END

OF POACHING PLEASE