Directions: Take a moment to reflect on your learning from the PBS episode or program you just watched. Then answer the following questions.

What did you learn from this episode? Remember to include key ideas and details. Briefly explain why these details are important to you, the community, and the world.

How does this episode connect to what you have already learned in class?

After watching this episode, what do you want to learn more about?

For more information about KET's Learn at Home initiative and to find additional learning resources, visit KET.org/LearnAtHome.
You may use sentence starters below or create your own as you write your thoughts about the episode.

The key ideas from this episode of (name of program) are ________________________________.

These details are important to me because ________________________________.

These details are important to the community or world because ________________________________.

This episode connects to what I have learned in class because ________________________________.

Question stems:

What would happen if ________________________________?

How does ________________________________?

How might ________________________________ relate to ________________________________?

What causes ________________________________?

What would happen if ________________________________?